

I'm writing to register my opposition to broader cell phone usage on commercial flights. As an American Airlines flight attendant for six years I clearly understand the dangers of liberalizing the policy. It would make it easier for terrorists to coordinate future attacks. It would also make it harder for myself and my colleagues to communicate with passengers regarding safety issues and during emergencies. Please leave the cell phone policy as it is. Thanks for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Petersen